News4u

Published by Jamie

Welcome to News4U, a weekly newsletter created as part of our DofE volunteering section to keep everyone across Works4u connected. Each week we will report on student achievements, share news from our other sites, and highlight local volunteering opportunities to help you smash your own DofE goals.

Works4u Highlights

Digital Skills

This week in Digital Skills students have been busy developing their creative skills. From PC building to using the professional cameras, there has been some fabulous work!

An Eggquisite Morning

Breakfast club has been scrumptious this week. Breakfast is such an important meal of the day and that' s why we love breakfast club!

Ashton United Volunteering

This week marked the start of our Ashton United volunteering. Students went to the site and began litter picking to clean up the area. Well done all!

Supported Internship Success

This week we have seen some amazing success of a previous student. Mia has been officially offered paid employment after her internship at Nando' s .

Updates4u

Afternoon Tea volunteers needed
Wednesday 23rd October @ the Lock, if you are interested please speak with your keyworker.

Ashton United volunteers needed
Volunteers needed for various roles. Speak to George or your key worker if you're interested.
GeorgeEaton@normanmackie.com

Works4U Team
Works4u staff have been playing traitors this week, press the cloak to keep updated.

Reminder

Don' t forget to sign up for the weekly enterprises:
Stage4U,
Create4U,
Food4U,
Vision4U,
Fashion4U.

We are doing a Halloween party at the Peacock– Click on the link for more information!

Half-term starts on the 23rd of October– trips will be happening!