

News4u

Published by Millie and Jamie

Welcome to News4U, a weekly newsletter created as part of our DofE volunteering section to keep everyone across Works4u connected. Each week we will report on student achievements, share news from our other sites, and highlight local volunteering opportunities to help you smash your own DofE goals.

Works4u Highlights

Art therapy

This week in Art Therapy student have been making Halloween decorations to display in our R&R shop. Come and take a look!

The Lock Afternoon Tea

Some of our students have volunteered for the Lock Afternoon Tea for a local charity Safe Space Well-Being Lab.

Ragland's Farm

At Ragland's Farm this week, we have had the dentist come out to see the horses. Students helped to keep the horses calm while the dentist looked at their teeth.

PSHE

This week in PSHE they went to Valley farm .They made bread, cheese and butter. They also looked at the animals there. All the student loved, it was a good day out!

Updates4u

Afternoon Tea volunteers needed

Wednesday 23rd October @ the Lock, if you are interested please speak with your keyworker.

Chess Tournament

The chess tournament has officially started!

So far we have had some great games

Next match is happening today at lunch

Reminder

Don't forget to sign up for the weekly enterprises:

Stage4U,
Create4U,
Food4U,
Vision4U,
Fashion4U.

We are doing a Halloween party at the Lock (Date & Time-TBC).

Half-term starts on the 23rd of October

